

MISSION

The Ministry Resource Center brings together the study of theology and the practice of ministry. The Center serves congregations and agencies, their leaders, and the faculty and students of Yale Divinity School.

Through the Ministry Resource Center, persons may:

- Consult on ideas and issues in ministry and useful resources for each location;
- Examine resources for ministry programs, community outreach, and pastoral and congregational care issues;
- Participate in workshops led by professionals in program ministries;
- Explore print and audiovisual resources for all ages and occasions.

BENEFITS

- Church members may borrow print resources, video and sound recordings at no charge.*
- Church members are invited to Ministry Resource Center-sponsored workshops.

- Ministry Resource Center staff will provide in-person, email or phone consultation for individuals and groups.
- The church receives the Ministry Resource Center newsletter.

**Borrowers are responsible for shipping costs.*

HOURS

Open when Yale Divinity Library is open. Ministry Resource Center staff is present and video reservations and renewal of resources can be made Monday through Friday, 10:00 to 3:00.

LOCATION

Inside the main entrance on the north side of the Divinity School, go left and then right. Inside the Library, go right and then left.

SERVICE AT A DISTANCE

Through phone or email consultation and shipping, the Ministry Resource Center provides timely service and a full range of resources to congregations around the corner and across the country.
